- Narrator: Traffic police pull a female driver over for speeding on the northbound carriageway / dual carriageway in the fast lane of the motorway. She pulls over on the hard shoulder and the Traffic Officer approaches asking her to wind her window down.
- TRAFFIC OFFICER: Good evening madam.

FEMALE DRIVER: What's the problem officer?

- TRAFFIC OFFICER: We've pulled you over / stopped you because you were speeding back there, You were doing a hundred and five (105) miles per hour (Mph)
- FEMALE DRIVER: Oh god! I didn't realize officer. I'm in a rush / hurry to get my little girl to the doctors'.
- TRAFFIC OFFICER: Is this your daughter madam?
- FEMALE DRIVER: Yes, I've got an appointment at seven and we're running late. I normally abide by the speed limits, honestly, I didn't realize.I'm a law abiding citizen.
- TRAFFIC OFFICER: Is she sick? What's the problem?
- FEMALE DRIVER: No, she's not ill as such, It's just for a check-up.
- TRAFFIC OFFICER: I don't consider that to be an emergency and for you to be doing over a hundred miles per hour.
- FEMALE DRIVER: I know, I realize that now officer can't you just let me off this time?
- TRAFFIC OFFICER: Do you know / Are you aware that it's an offence to have a small child standing up on the back seat and the consequences that could have for her?
- FEMALE DRIVER: She does that, she gets out of her seat. You know what toddlers are like. I didn't know I was committing an offence.
- TRAFFIC OFFICER: I'm afraid that's no excuse madam.Can / May I see your driving licence please? / Have you got your driving license on you?
- FEMALE DRIVER: Yes, let me see (pause) It's somewhere in the glove box ...

Narrator:	She opens the glove box and fumbles through some paperwork nervously. She hands her driving license over to the officer.
TRAFFIC OFFICER:	Do you know the number plate / license plate/registration plate of your vehicle?
FEMALE DRIVER:	Ermm, my mind's gone blankBDfive one SMR.
TRAFFIC OFFICER:	Right, Okay, just a moment / just bear with me please madam
FEMALE DRIVER:	God! I'm gonna be late, I was supposed to be there at seven I'm never gonna make it on time now.
TRAFFIC OFFICER:	As I say just bear with me and we'll have you on your way in no time / You'll be on your way in no time.
Narrator:	The officer radios in and performs a vehicle check
TRAFFIC OFFICER:	Could you just check a vehicle for me? Bravo Delta five one Sierra Mike Romeo . It's a blue Ford estate.
Narrator:	The Officer confirms the Identification of the vehicle and everything seems to be aboveboard with a valid MOT and Insurance policy.
